

MAMA Music for Schools Program Application

Thank you for your interest in MAMA Foundation's Music for Schools Program. Under this program we provide complimentary copies of each release in our catalog to music libraries of institutions that are in the forefront of jazz education today.

To qualify, your school must be either a) an accredited college or university which offers a degree in music or musicology and which places significant emphasis on jazz studies; or b) a high school or a program servicing high schools which has shown an exceptional commitment to jazz education.

To apply for the program, have the music librarian of your school fill out and sign the form below. Please allow 3 - 4 weeks for processing.
